GMG Publishing Corp. Acquired by the McEvoy Group

San Francisco, CA (March 8, 2012) The McEvoy Group LLC, a San Francisco–based media company whose book properties include Chronicle Books, Princeton Architectural Press, and becker&mayer!, announced today that it has acquired GMG Publishing Corp, a New York–based international publisher of fine art stationery and paper gifts, from its owner and founder, Gerald Galison.

Founded in 1979, GMG Publishing Corp is comprised of Galison Publishing, known for their well-designed and manufactured paper products, including boxed notecards, stationery, journals, and other gift products; Mudpuppy Press, creators of award-winning toys and gifts, educational puzzles, and games; Galison Holiday, a division that offers holiday greeting cards; and Galison Custom, with its range of proprietary gift and stationery products for companies, non-profits, and retailers.

“I have sincere appreciation for the management approach of the McEvoy Group, and Chronicle Books is a great company that has inspired my team for many years,” says Gerald Galison who will continue as Publisher and President. “It’s an exciting time for both Galison and the McEvoy Group.”

“We’re excited to welcome Galison to our family of companies,” says McEvoy Group founder and CEO, Nion McEvoy. “We believe that, together, Galison and Chronicle will be the category leader in the paper goods market both in the U.S. and around the world.”

Jack Jensen, McEvoy Group President adds, “Jerry Galison has created a wonderful company and the McEvoy Group is fortunate to be joining forces with the highly talented Galison / Mudpuppy team, which will remain at the current New York headquarters.”
